Step-by-Step Solutions

Q1. Correct answer: (B)

A synonym is a word with the same meaning. 'Glad' means the same as 'happy'. 'Sad' and 'angry' are opposites, and 'tired' is unrelated.

Q2. Correct answer: (C)

An antonym is a word with the opposite meaning. The opposite of 'begin' is 'end'. 'Start' is a synonym of begin, not an antonym.

Q3. Correct answer: (C)

A noun names a person, place, animal or thing. In this sentence, 'garden' (a place) is a noun. 'Children' is also a noun, but among the four options only 'garden' is a noun.

Q4. Correct answer: (B)

A pronoun takes the place of a noun. Riya is a girl, so we use 'She'. 'He' is for a boy, 'It' is for a thing, and 'They' is for more than one.

Q5. Correct answer: (B)

We use 'an' before a word that begins with a vowel sound (a, e, i, o, u). 'Elephant' begins with the vowel sound 'e', so we say 'an elephant'.

Q6. Correct answer: (B)

A preposition shows where something is. If the cat is below the table, it is 'under' the table. 'On' means on top, and 'above' means higher up without touching.

Q7. Correct answer: (A)

The subject 'Birds' is plural, so we use the plural verb form 'fly' (Birds fly). We would say 'A bird flies' for one bird, but 'Birds fly' for many.

Q8. Correct answer: (C)

An adjective describes a noun. 'Beautiful' describes the dress. ('Red' is also an adjective here, but among the options only 'beautiful' is given.) 'Dress' is the noun being described.

Q9. Correct answer: (C)

The word 'Yesterday' tells us the action already happened, so we use the past tense 'went'. 'Go' and 'goes' are present tense, and 'going' needs a helper like 'are going'.

Q10. Correct answer: (A)

A contraction joins two words with an apostrophe in place of the missing letters. 'Do not' becomes 'don't' — the apostrophe replaces the 'o' of 'not'. 'Doesn't' is the contraction of 'does not'.

Q11. Correct answer: (C)

When a word ends in a consonant + 'y', we change the 'y' to 'i' and add 'es'. So 'baby' becomes 'babies'.

Q12. Correct answer: (A)

A conjunction joins two parts of a sentence. Here the second part is the opposite of what was wanted, so we use 'but' to show contrast: 'I wanted to play, but it started to rain.'

Q13. Correct answer: (B)

The idiom 'a piece of cake' means something is very easy to do. For example, 'The test was a piece of cake.' An idiom's meaning is different from the meaning of its separate words.

Q14. Correct answer: (C)

A question must begin with a capital letter and end with a question mark. So the correct sentence is 'What is your name?' — capital 'W' at the start and '?' at the end.

Q15. Correct answer: (B)

A positive statement takes a negative question tag. 'You are coming' is positive, so the tag is the negative 'aren't you?' The helping verb matches ('are' → 'aren't').

Q16. Correct answer: (B)

The phrasal verb 'put away' means to tidy something into its place. 'Put off' means to delay, and 'put on' means to wear. So the answer is 'put away'.

Q17. Correct answer: (C)

The passage says 'Snowy is white and has long, soft ears.' So the rabbit is white. Always look back at the passage to find the exact word.

Q18. Correct answer: (A)

The passage clearly states: 'Every morning, Tara gives Snowy fresh carrots and clean water.' So the answer is fresh carrots and clean water.

Q19. Correct answer: (B)

Tara feeds Snowy daily and 'takes good care' of the rabbit. This shows she is caring and responsible. We use clues from the passage to understand a person's nature.

Q20. Correct answer: (B)

The polite and correct reply to 'Thank you' is 'You're welcome.' It is a friendly way to accept someone's thanks. Good spoken English uses polite words like please, thank you and welcome.
